Asymptotic analysis of the MIT bag model

Nicolas Raymond[*1]

[1]IRMAR – Universite de Rennes 1 – France

Abstract

This talk is devoted to the mathematical investigation of the MIT bag model, that is the Dirac operator on a smooth and bounded domain with certain boundary conditions. I will explain why the operator is self-adjoint and, when the mass goes to infinity (non-relativistic limit), I will provide spectral asymptotic results.

[*]Speaker